DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment filed 8/30/07 has been entered and made of record.

By this amendment, claim 22 has been cancelled. Claims 1-21 and 23-29 are pending in the application. Claims 1-20 and 26-29 are allowed in the previous Office action.

In response to applicant's amendment to claim 21, the rejection under 35 USC 102(b) of this claim is withdrawn. However, after a careful further consideration by the examiner, the examiner finds two distinct inventions in the application as follows.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  1. Claims 1-20 and 26-29, drawn to desynchronizing fingerprinting of digital data, classified in class 382, subclass 124.
  - II. Claims 21 and 23-25, drawn to detecting identification information associated with a secret key, classified in class 380, subclass 277.

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination II has separate utility such as using a plurality of secret keys to perform watermark detection on each of the embedding regions and detecting identification information associated with a secret key. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction were not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
